Week In Society

The beautiful Southern girl is, if porsible, more beautiful than ever before, for there is a wonderful effect in good cheer. If it is true that there is long rairy in the Bunny South, then the society girl is young, indeed; for, what with the fanciful and weird scene of all-hallow-e'en, and the numerous showers of rice which have been thrown by many a happy throng, longevity of life certainly must reign.

MR. J. D. TAYLOR

A well known citizen of Richmond, Va., says:

I was cured of a very bad case of rheumatism by two bottles of L. J. Hayden's wonderful Indian Herb Medicines den's wonderful Indian Herb Medicines after suffering a long time with the dreafful disease. I was unable to move hand or foot, and after I had taken three doses of the medicine I was able to get out of my bed and walk across the floor, and only two bottles of the medicines has made me a perfect well man in every respect. I cannot give Mr. L. J. Hayden too much braise for what he has done for me. I have sent many other suffering ones to him and they have also gotten cured My daughter was also cured of rheumatism and indigestion by L. J. Hayden's Herb A.edicines at No. 404 W. Broad Street, Richmond, Va. I recommend Mr. L. J. Hayden as one of the greatest healers of the sick on earth.
